Bruck on the Leitha River.

1. Truck [] towing trailer [] and truck [] occupied by 4 EM were seen near the railroad station of Bruck (P 49/X 77) on the Leitha River on 6 April 1951. All the soldiers on the vehicles wore red-bordered black epaulets. No notice of rolling stock to be assembled was posted on the bulletin board in the station's dispatch office on that day. 50X1-HUM
2. Heavy vehicular traffic and troop movements were observed in the camp in the woods near Bruck. Jeep [] and truck [] were seen near the camp gate. The jeep was driven by a soldier wearing red-bordered black epaulets and was occupied by a lieutenant colonel with black-bordered red epaulets and two captains with red-bordered black epaulets; the truck was occupied by four EM wearing red-bordered black epaulets. 50X1-HUM
3. A sentry wearing black-bordered red epaulets guarded the new komendantura in Bruck. Sedan [] was parked in front of the building. 50X1-HUM
4. The entrance to the signal equipment depot in the former sugar refinery was guarded by a sentry who wore red-bordered black epaulets.

Kaisersteinbruch.

5. The noise of firing, which was believed to be from guns of medium caliber, was heard from the training area southeast of Kaisersteinbruch (O 49/X 67) on 5 April 1951. Fresh caterpillar treadmarks were seen in the camp although no armored vehicles were observed. The number of troops in the camp was apparently smaller than observed in March.
6. About 45 soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets, some with motor transport insignia, were seen in the northern and southern section of the barracks east of Kaisersteinbruch. Twenty-six motor vehicles, [] were parked there. The stables were occupied by horses. 50X1-HUM
